

CONGRESS CRIER

Monday, June 28, 1999

Welcome

Welcome to the 1999 Virginia 4-H Congress. Pardon our dust; we've been diligently working to make this year better than ever! In keeping with our theme, which is Foundations in the Past, Focused on the Future, we've been taking aspects of previous Congresses and fine tuning them for the new millenium. For example, we've brought All Star Tapping back, we've allotted more free time, and we're making Congress not only a place to compete and socialize but a place to give back to the community by your participation in various community service projects on Tuesday.

I want you to challenge yourselves this week to make the most out of Congress. Try new things; hang out with different people, or ask questions about the various exhibits at the Share Fair on Wednesday.

In the spirit of 4-H
