

2007 Fall 4-H Leaders Conference

SATURDAY, October 20, 2007

9:00 am - 11:00 am	Registration Opens (Breakfast on your own) Hallway of The Potomac Room.
9:30 am - 10:00 am The Hampton Room.	Conference Overview
SESSION I
10:00 am - 11:30 pm Norfolk Rm.	Science Based Programs
10:00 am - 11:30 pm Chesapeake_Rm.	Horse Measuring Certification There is a new official measuring stick and requirement that you receive hands on instruction from a registered VHSA Stewart in order to be an official 4-H Horse Measurer. Class participants will be provided a notebook with instructions and recording forms. Certificates will be issued to those completing the class.
10:00 am - 11:30 pm Potomac Rm.	True Colors TRUE COLORS uses colors to identify four distinct perspectives and personalities. Each color represents an individual's character. Understanding your TRUE COLORS and the colors of your co-workers or classmates, spouse or friends, children or parents, and others will bring about new awareness in not only understanding yourself and others, but will make you more effective in your relationships with these important people in your life. The four TRUE COLORS constitute your character spectrum. Knowing your primary color will provide you clues as to what esteems you by identifying your strengths, joys, needs, and what causes you stress and frustration. Your personal and professional success is based, in part, on your self-confidence, esteem, and your ability to communicate effectively with others. TRUE COLORS provides the key to your success by giving you a new vocabulary that allows you to understand not only how you are motivated, but how to motivate and esteem others, thus increasing everyone's productivity. The TRUE COLORS workshop is conducted in a relaxed setting with participants taking part in their learning. This is not a lecture-format workshop. Have you ever wondered why you get along with some people, while others get on your nerves? Do some people absolutely stress you, seeming to operate exactly opposite of your style? These and other questions are explored in this workshop. Come prepared to have fun, laugh, and learn in this 'edutainment' session.
11:45 - 1:15 pm Hampton Rm.	Lunch (Dining Hall) Keynote Speaker:

SESSION 2
