

Northern District 4-H Qualifying Clinic

Hosted by the Pony Patch 4H Club

Concessions Available

Hunter Equitation on the Flat & Showmanship

Warrenton Horse Show Grounds

Wednesday June 18, 2008, Sessions begin 5 p.m.

Tentative Schedule:

4:00pm – 5:00pm Registration & schooling

5:00pm – 6:30pm Session I begins

6:45pm – 8:15pm Session II begins

Clinician:

Hunter Equitation—Susan Furr, Fox Furr Farm, Jeffersonton

Susan has 25 years of experience riding & showing hunters. Susan has also been instructing for the past 15 years and enjoys teaching youth especially. Susan has a local farm that is available for boarding & instruction for 4-Hers. Susan is a 4-H alumni.

Showmanship—Joleen Teets, Pony Patch 4-H, Leader

Joleen competed in 4-H as a member for over 10 years and has many Showmanship Championships throughout her years as a member. Additionally, she competed on the AQHA Circuit for many years. Joleen has mentored her own members to help them achieve great success in Showmanship.

Entry Procedure:

- Complete registration form.
- Attach a check for entry fees ($30) payable to "Pony Patch 4-H", a copy of the participant's Health History Form, Equine Waiver, & current coggins.
- Entries are on a first come, first served basis, 16 maximum
- Entries close Friday, June 13, 2008, 5pm.
- If insufficient entries are received, management reserves the right to cancel. Applicants will be notified no later than June 16, 2008, if this is the case.
- Return completed entry to: VCE – Fauquier County Office

Attn: Qualifying Clinic
24 Pelham Street
Warrenton, VA 20186

At check in participants will be divided into two groups according to experience.

Groups will rotate through two sections (equitation & showmanship)

Questions about state horse show will be answered at the end of both sessions.

There will be opportunities for ponies and horses to be measured. Please indicate if you need your pony or horse to be measured.