

Virginia 4-H Leaders Association Fall 2001 Meeting

Holiday Inn - Airport, Richmond, Virginia
November 3-4, 2001

Call for Workshop Proposals

You are invited to submit a workshop proposal for the Fall Conference of the Virginia 4-H Volunteer Leaders Association hosted by Southeast District 4-H Volunteer Leaders Association. The theme is "4-H Adult Volunteers: Getting Back to the Basics". Proposals are due by June 1, 2001. The Southeast District Leaders Association committee will review proposals and make recommendations to the State Program Committee in July. Applicants will be notified by August 31.

Workshop proposals can be on any topic of interest to 4-H volunteer leaders (a list of possible topics is suggested below). Proposals may be made by 4-H volunteer leaders, agents, staff or by other interested persons in youth development or necessary skills for volunteer leaders. Workshops should actively involve the participants and include suitable handouts to replicate the activity or program once volunteer leaders return home.

Suggested possible topics include any of the ten curriculum areas, technology, 4-H administration and paperwork, day camps, portfolios, crafts, games and organizational skills.

Please submit only one proposal on a page and include all presenters. Return proposals to Barbara Reese, 9012 Sowder Place, Nokesville, VA 20181 or e-mail to bjreese@erols.com by June 1, 2001.
