

Would you like to take your students to San Francisco in April to represent Virginia in a national competition on consumer issues?

This is your chance!

Announcing the qualifying rounds
Tenth Annual State
LifeSmarts Championship

It's free and it's fun!

www.lifesmarts.org

Participate online from Fall 2004 to February 21, 2005!

High School Youth learn to make better decisions about:

- technology
- personal finance
- health and safety
- the environment
- consumer rights and responsibilities

Previous state championship winners:

2003-4	Maggie L. Walker Governors School	1999	Fairfax 4-H
2002	Washington County 4-H	1998	Henrico 4-H

2001 Washington County 4-H
2000 Clover Hill High School

1997 Northumberland County
1996 New Kent High School 4-H

Your high school youth could be the next winners! Ready to check out LifeSmarts? Register by simply visiting www.lifesmarts.org and clicking on "Play the Game".

Sponsored by the Virginia LifeSmarts Coalition Representing: Virginia Cooperative Extension, Virginia Council on Economic Education, Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, the State Corporation Commission, Virginia Credit Union League, and Housing Opportunities Made Equal, Inc.

*For more information, contact:
Dr. Celia Hayhoe, Virginia LifeSmarts Director,
Virginia Tech, Dept. of AHRM (04010),
101 Wallace Hall, Blacksburg, VA 24061
(540) 231-3497 or chayhoe@vt.edu*