

State 4H Livestock Judging Contest - 1998

QUESTIONS – ANGUS HEIFERS

Write the number of the animal that is the best answer in the space provided.

- _____ 1. Which heifer is the smallest framed and the earliest maturing?
 - _____ 2. Which heifer is the flattest ribbed, narrowest-made, and closest tracking?
 - _____ 3. Which is the straightest shouldered heifer with the stiffest pastern in the class?
 - _____ 4. Which is the straightest-lined, levellest hiped and most nicely balanced heifer in the class?
 - _____ 5. Which heifer has the shortest neck and is coarsest about her front end?
 - _____ 6. Which heifer is the most feminine fronted?
 - _____ 7. Which is the heaviest muscled heifer in the class?
 - _____ 8. According to the data, how many heifers can be embryo transfer flush mates (0, 2, 3, or all 4)?
 - _____ 9. Which heifer should produce daughters that have the lowest milk-producing ability?
 - _____ 10. Which heifer has the highest genetic potential for growth in the class?
-

QUESTIONS – CROSSBRED GILTS

Write the number of the animal that is the best answer in the space provided.

- _____ 1. Which gilt is the heaviest muscled with the most hip and ham in the class?
- _____ 2. Which gilt has the most width to her skeleton?
- _____ 3. Which is the lightest muscled and narrowest-made gilt?
- _____ 4. Which is the shallowest bodied and tightest ribbed gilt in the class?
- _____ 5. Between 2 and 3 which is the big framed and late maturing gilt?
- _____ 6. Between 2 and 3 which gilt has more slope to the shoulder and flex to her front end?
- _____ 7. Which gilt has the most prominent underline in the class?
- _____ 8. Which is the leanest gilt in the class?
- _____ 9. Which gilt has the best performing dam in the class?
- _____ 10. Which is the slowest growing gilt in the class?