

- _____ 12. Which animal has the highest dressing percent (carcass weight / live weight)?
a. market steer b. market lamb c. market hog d. cull beef cow
- _____ 13. Which is the most serious contaminant of wool?
a. plastic b. hay seed c. burrs d. manure
- _____ 14. Which species of grass often has a fungus that causes reduced gain, reproductive problems, and reduced milk production?
a. orchardgrass b. bluegrass c. tall fescue d. switchgrass
15. Match the product name with its use.
- _____ Dectomax a. estrous synchronization
- _____ LA-200 b. antibiotic
- _____ 7-Way c. dewormer
- _____ Synchromate-B d. vaccine
- _____ 16. Which factor has a greater effect on the value (price per pound) of wool?
a. fiber length b. fiber diameter
- _____ 17. Which grows faster?
a. bull b. steer c. heifer d. they're the same
- _____ 18. What is the closest to normal body temperature of pigs, cattle, and sheep (in degrees Fahrenheit)?
a. 95 b. 98 c. 101 d. 105
- _____ 19. Which provides the highest amount of protein per pound of feed, but is only used by cattle and sheep?
a. corn b. alfalfa meal c. soybean meal d. urea
- _____ 20. How do prices of pigs and lambs now compare to prices a year ago?
a. Both are higher b. Both are lower
c. Only pigs are lower d. They're about the same as last year
- _____ 21. Which type of animal has a lower requirement for protein (expressed as percent protein in the ration)?
a. young, rapidly growing animal b. mature, pregnant female
c. mature female in early lactation d. animal approaching finished weight

- _____ 22. The process of removing fertilized eggs from one animal and allowing another animal to carry them through pregnancy is called
a. artificial insemination b. artificial rearing c. cloning d. embryo transfer
- _____ 23. Marbling has a major impact on
a. tenderness b. juiciness c. flavor d. both b & c
- _____ 24. Which species is normally split down the backbone during the slaughter process?
a. Lambs b. Market hogs c. Cattle d. None of them
- _____ 25. Your steer is eating 30 pounds of high moisture shelled corn that is 70% dry matter. How many pounds of dry matter is this?
a. 30 b. 70 c. 21 d. 210